Thought for the day

There is no attack of the enemy so violent,
that is, no temptation so formidable,
that an eager study of the Scriptures will not easily beat off.

~Desiderius Erasmus

Sunday Morning Bible study

"The Acts of the Apostles:

the 1st century church teaches the 21st century church"

Beginning September 10, at 9:30 a.m. in the Fireside Lounge. Pastor Curt will lead a study of the book of Acts. What can we learn from the early church about evangelism, perseverance, the centrality of the Gospel, and how to live as God's people?

The Basics of the Faith – October 1 – November 12

Interested in what the Lutheran Church teaches? This 7-week class will look at the basic teachings of the Christian faith as understood by the Lutheran Church. This is open to everyone, especially those exploring what the Christian faith is all about. We will meet at 5:30 p.m. Sundays, beginning Oct. 1. No previous Bible knowledge necessary.

I'm James Robinson, Pastor Robinson's son and I'm working on my Eagle project for Scouts BSA. If anyone is interested in helping, I need financial support, lumber, and physical labor. If you're interested contact me at solesurvivor2215@gmail.com and please CC my father at spar-tyjr@gmail.com or mail to:

I would be grateful for eternity ...
a concept not wasted on you, I'm sure."

Fall 2023 "Under New Management"

Stewardship Team is excited to announce our Fall Stewardship Focus "Under New Management".

When God calls, lives change.

Starting September 17, this five-week focus will include a sermon series, small group sessions and podcasts encouraging everyone to think about God's management of our lives and our management of the resources He has entrusted to us. See the small group session schedule below. This will be an amazing opportunity for the people of Martin Luther Chapel to connect in community and faith. "Under New Management" will conclude with a celebration luncheon on October 15. RSVP for a small group session and the luncheon using the QR code or sign up on the board in the narthex.
