Thought for the Day

What the disciples tell of Easter is not witness to a Force, a Power, a triumphant Idea, a dominant Conviction, an abstract Belief; it is witness to a Person, to Jesus of Nazareth, the Jesus whom they had known, obeyed, and loved.

He comes to them; He speaks to them.

Kindle the fire of Your light in my heart and stir a desire in me to spend more time with You.

Calling all kids to join us on April 12, at 9:30 to help make the snacks for after service. Parents and other adults interested in supervising the fun are welcome as well.

★ Student leaders are hosting an Open House on Apr. 11 during Admitted Students day. Future MSU students will be in town and we would love your help to welcome them to our campus and MLC.

Friendship House News

- Summer Teachers Needed: We are in desperate need of new teachers for the summer semester (and hopefully beyond) as many of our current teachers are either taking the summer off or retiring from teaching altogether.

Annual Meeting, April 30 at 11:00 a.m.: There is still time to RSVP if you plan to attend, either in person or via Zoom. Use the QR code here.

Praise God, for the Easter musicians

- ★ Joe Beaubien, euphonium, Shonnie Brinkman, piano, Gretchen Endres, violin, Joe Nettleman, trombone, Jennifer Stauffer, trumpet
- ★ Choir: Holly Allison, Joe Beaubien, Dave Dressel, Tessa Genovese, Joe Nettleman, Jude Robinson, Dian Silvey, Tami, Olivia & Emily Smith, and all those in the Hallelujah Chorus .

Happy Easter! Christ is Risen
